is going to be afterward, only more of it. You have your choice to begin with, but no goods are changed in the matrimonial shop. You have to go next door to the divorce court for that. There should also be an elementary department, in which men contemplating matrimony should be familiarized with the fact that, while a courtship can be conducted on hot air it takes with the fact that, while a courtship can be conducted on hot air, it takes hard cash to run a family.

Tière ought to be a daily exercise, in which a pupil would be required to repeat over butcher's bills, and grocery bills, and ice bills, and milk bills, and millinery bills, and all the other various bills and ills to which a married man is subject. Then, at least, a fellow would know what he was going up against in matrimony.

Husbands would also have it impressed upon them that, if flattery was useful in courtship, it is a necessity of life in marriage. It is incomprehensible, but true, that a woman's idea of a perfect husband is a man who will tell her that she looks beautiful in a Mother Hubbard and curl papers. If

Mother Hubbard and curl papers. If he will do that, she will let him beat her, and starve her, and neglect her, and still think herself blessed among wives.

When is come to the range of accomplishmer's that may be taught in a school for husbands, the list is limitless. The most important will be to develop a talent for collecting gossip. Then, when a man comes home at night and his weary wife, who has been shut up in the house all day with the children, asks him what he has heard, he wen't growl out, "Nothing."

Instead, he will be a walking encyclopedia of spicy news, and domestic life

Instead, he will be a walking encyclopedia of spicy news, and domestic life will take on new charm. Many a married woman, as things are now, might just as well be married to a store dummy for all the conversation she gets out of him.

It would also add much to the comfort of married life, if prospective benedicts would take a short course in millinery and dressmaking—a sort of first aid to the helpless, as it were.

Few women, comparatively speaking, are able to keep maids, and the possession of a husband who not only took a real heart interest in clothes, but could tell you when your hat was on straight, and fasten you up in the back without making a human pincushion of you, would go a long way toward a loning for any purely masculine faults.

Of course, these are a few suggestions along along along the properties. Of course, these are a few suggestions along elementary lines, but they show the beautiful scope there is for a school where men can be prepared for the duties that await them as hubands.

Stomach and brain affect each other. A sick stomach sours the disposition and prevents sleep and brain rest, and a sick brain sours the stomach and clogs the bowels. Men of sedentary habits, brain workers who don't get much exercise, have sick stomachs and howels, and wear out their brains and nerves "I work in the office and don't get as much exercise as I should, and when I feel bed I just take a Cascaret which always makes me feel alright."

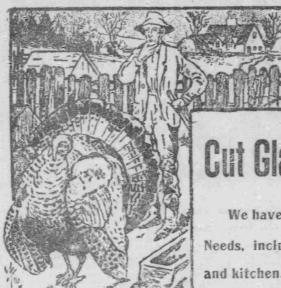

—J. E. Rohan, Q. & C. Route, Crescent, Ky.

"I had a torpid liver for months. I bought a box of Cascarets in Washington and have not only been put in perfect health, but have gained considerable in weight."

"Cascarets were the only medicine I had with me when I heat the world's record is "Champe world heat heat he world's record is "Champe Corn Rusker of America," husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of America," husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of America, "husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of America," husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of America, "husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of America," husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of America, "husking 270 bushels in 19 heart of Green's and the dacarets beneficial after a spell of hard work clearing the brain as well as the characteristics."

A man who keeps his bowels regular with Cascarets Candy Cathartic, that is without strain or violence, can keep strong and healthy without much exercise. A famous professor in Jefferson Medical College used to advise his students: "Trust in God and keep your bowels open!" That's God's own wisdom, for when the bowels are regular and the digestion strong and healthy, then the system is safe and the brain and nerves will have inexhaustible elasticity and life.
